Three Easy Ways to Order:

Individual Meals

Individual employees can get the food they want delivered right to the office without having to worry about saving receipts or doing expense reports.

Catering

Instead of managing multiple house accounts, Seamless gives you easy online access to all the best local caterers for your events, client meetings, and team lunches.

Your colleagues choose their own meals from pre-selected restaurants. The meals are delivered at a time of your choosing, individually bagged and labeled. It's that simple.
